

Pro Essential Certification Training

Quannessence Skincare, in partnership with Maritime Beauty Supply

Instructor: Bobbie Jo MacDonald

Discover how to provide a tailored and luxurious facial experience for your clients with the Quannessence Skincare specialty products through the Pro Essential Skincare training. This comprehensive course covers all the essential facial treatment protocols using the full Quannessence premium skincare line, except for the Infinity and professional exfoliating peel products. By utilizing specialty protocols and potent plant botanicals, peptides, and nutrients, these treatments target specific skin conditions on multiple layers of the skin for optimal corrective management.

Your clients will enjoy improved skin health, a thickened dermis, enhanced skin barrier function, reduced visible signs of aging and pigmentation, gentle exfoliation, heightened product penetration, and a radiant complexion. This training course provides extensive product knowledge, theory, sales tips, a Quannessence-certified educator's facial demonstration, and hands-on training and guidance.
